

6 O Hear Me, Thou Most Righteous God

PSALM 4

STANTON C.M.

Adrian Hartog, 1954

1 O hear me, Thou most right - eous God, When
2 O sons of men, how long, how long, Will 3 Now learn that men of god - ly heart The

I ap - peal to Thee, Have mer - cy still, and ye de - spise my name? How long will ye love Lord our God holds dear, That when they call up - an - swer Thou, For Thou didst set me free.

van - i - ty, My glo - ry turn to shame?
on His name He grants a list - ening ear.

4 Then stand in awe and fear the
Consider and be still. [Lord,
Present a righteous sacrifice
And wait upon His will.

5 O who will show us any good?
The anxious many say.
Then lift on us, O gracious God,
Thy loving face always.

6 My joy in Thy good favor, Lord,
Exceeds their harvest glee;
I rest in confidence, for Thou
Art my security.
